Scatter plot showing average weight (company presence) at the county level versus average health outcome ranking at the county level, with prediction of the relationship between county health and company performance based on linear regression. The relationship between average number of company present in a county and the average heath outcome ranking for that county varies by States. Plot was an interactive plot created in Tableau.